Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion for Conditional Certification

Comes Plaintiff and moves this Court to conditionally certify the proposed class in this matter. Defendants have agreed not to oppose this motion; without waiving any defenses to the claims of Plaintiffs and/or those similarly situated. Specifically Plaintiff requests the court:

1. Conditionally certify the Class, consisting of all present and former employees who performed the job duties of a “line cook”¹ on behalf of Philip Krajeck and/or Team Chow, LLC from November 12, 2010 to present;
2. Approve the contents of an agreed Court-Supervised Notice and Consent form which the parties will submit within 14 days of the Initial Case Management Conference;
3. Grant permission for Plaintiffs to mail, email, or otherwise produce the approved Court-Supervised Notice and Consent Form to potential Class Members. Defendant will also post the proposed notice in their place of business mutually agreeable to both parties.

¹ The parties will have a more detailed description of the persons who fit the title of “line cook” in the proposed notice submitted.
